

Bigg Books, the Newcastle Philosophy Society and the PSE present

ON PHILOSOPHY

Public Lecture Series

Autumn 2019

Thinkers (Venue: Newcastle Castle)

October 8th: Becoming Beauvoir

Kate Kirkpatrick (Kings College London)

October 15th: How to Be a Marxist

Martin Hägglund (Yale University)

October 22nd: Nietzsche for the 21st Century

Sue Prideaux (Award-winning Nietzsche Biographer)

Themes (Venue: Lit and Phil)

November 5th: Free Will: Real or Illusion?

Christian List (LSE) & Gregg Caruso (SUNY)

November 19th: Humanism and Anti-Humanism

Raymond Tallis (Author of Seeing Ourselves)

December 3rd: A Global History of Philosophy

Julian Baggini (Author of How the World Thinks)

Where? Newcastle Castle, Castle Garth, Newcastle, NE1 1RQ

Lit and Phil, 23 Westgate Road, Newcastle, NE1 1SE

Please note that neither room is accessible to wheelchair users

When? Doors at 6.45pm, talks start at 7pm

How Much? Castle Events: £8 (£5 concs)

Lit and Phil Events: £5 (£3 concs)

Season Pass: £30 (£20 concs)

Advance tickets not available

Philosophy book stall courtesy of Bigg Books

For more information

<https://www.thephilosopher1923.org/events>

www.meetup.com/newphilsoc/events

The 'On Philosophy' lecture series is generously supported by the Royal Institute of Philosophy.