

PHILOSOPHY AT BLACKWELL'S

Local publisher Bigg Books and the Newcastle Philosophy Society have teamed up to organise a season of Tuesday night talks by world-renowned philosophers alongside emerging local ones, dealing with contemporary issues in an accessible and exciting way.

THE AUTUMN SEASON

10/10/17 – Anthony Morgan: Kant and the Limits of Philosophy

Book launch for Morgan's The Kantian Catastrophe? Published by Bigg Books.

24/10/17 – Raymond Tallis: The Seductive Myth of Time Travel

Tallis' Of Time and Lamentation was published in May by Agenda Publishing.

14/11/17 – Stephen Mumford: Metaphysics as a Way of Life

Mumford's Glimpse of Light was published in June by Bloomsbury.

12/12/17 – Ian Parker: Philosophy and Revolution

Book launch for Parker's Revolutionary Keywords for a New Left. Published by Zero Books.

The events will run from 6-8.30pm (talks start at 6.30pm), and will take place at Costa Coffee in Blackwell's, 141 Percy Street, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, NE1 7RS. Tickets for the events are free and available through www.eventbrite.co.uk.
